

The Daily Courant.

Wednesday, March 19. 1707.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated March 15.

Madrid, March 4.

THE Duke of Berwick having drawn together near Albacete the Army he commands, march'd the 23d of last Month to Cosientes on the little River Gabriel; where he is encamp'd, waiting for some Troops from Navarre. The Enemy have likewise taken the Field in the Kingdom of Valencia, and their Army is encamp'd at Xativa on the Xucar; but their Number is not rightly known, some Advices making them but 20000, others 30000. Be that as it will, it was not expected they would take the Field so soon; and our Court despairing of executing the great Projects they had form'd against them, the Departure of King Philip for the Army is deferr'd, till the Troops of the two Crowns are render'd superiour to those of the Enemy, by a great Reinforcement which the Duke of Orleans is to bring into this Kingdom from Dauphine.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Mar. 26.

Vienna, Mar. 12. The 10th Instant arriv'd from Transilvania M. Pableck, a Captain in the Regiment of Uhlfelt, being sent to the Emperour with an Account from Baron Tige, that he having Intelligence a Body of several thousand Malecontents commanded by Count Sephen Bekri lay between Clausenburg and Hermanstad, drew out the Garrison of Hermanstad to reinforce his Detachment of Imperialists, and attack'd and defeated the Enemy, killing 1800 of them, among them 2 French Officers, and taking among the Booty some Papers of Consequence; with the Loss of 90 Imperialists kill'd, and a greater Number wounded. Yesterday Morning Advice came by an Express from Spain, of the Arrival of the confederate Fleet with Land Forces at Alicant, and that the Affairs of King Charles III. have a very good Aspect: 'Tis suppos'd this Express has likewise brought King Charles's Consent to the Marriage propos'd between him and the Princess of Wolfembuttel. Count Colaldo, one of the Emperour's Gentlemen of the Bed Chamber, and Count Sinzendorf a Major General and Colonel of a Regiment, fought a Duel Yesterday; in which the former receiv'd 2 Wounds, one in his Breast: Then their Seconds parted them, and made them Friends, and they got all into a Coach to return to this City: But Count Colaldo imagining from the Pain he felt from the Wound he had receiv'd in his Breast, that it was Mortal, leap'd out of the Coach agen, and demanded further Satisfaction; and Count Sinzendorf following him out of the Coach they fought agen; then the latter was run into the Throat, and died on the Spot. Count Colaldo took Sanctuary in the Convent of the Servitz, and having made his Will died also last Night. He had caus'd his Friends to ask the Emperour's Pardon, and it was granted him. To Day M. Guarent, late Envoy extraordinary to the Turkish Court, makes his publick Entry on Horseback, to give the Emperour an Account of what he transacted at the Porte. He has brought an Assurance in Writing from that Court, that they will inviolably observe the Peace of Carlowitz. His Domesticks are cloath'd in the Turkish Fashion; his Secretary is to carry his Re-credential Letters wrap'd in Cloath of Silver; he has brought hither some very fine Turkish Horses. 'Tis talk'd the Imperialists have demolish'd the Fortifications of Clausenburg, and taken Hostages of the Inhabitants for very considerable Contributions. 7000 Malecontents having sat down before Leopoldstad, have burnt the Magazine with their Bombs; but 'tis hop'd they will not stand 3 Regiments of Imperialists and 2000 Ralsians that are on the March to relieve that Place. Count Zobor having us'd offensive Words, in speaking to Baron Strahlenheim, the King of Sweden's Envoy, of Affairs in which that Monarch is concern'd; is put under Confinement; and will no doubt be oblig'd to make his said Majesty full Satisfaction, before he recover his Liberty. General Rabutin is with the Imperial Army near Stein am Anger, and has set Men to work to cast up Lines near Sr. Gothard to cover Siiria.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Mar. 24.

Turin, Mar. 5. The 3d Instant pass'd through this City about 50 French Officers with their Servants and Baggage, which came from the Enemy's Army in Italy with Passports from our Duke and Prince Eugene of Savoy: After they had given in their Names to the Governour of this City, they were conducted towards Suza by one of our Trumpeters and some Soldiers. The same Day arriv'd a great Number of Recruits rais'd in Switzerland for the Service of his Royal Highness.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated Mar. 25.

Roveredo, Mar. 12. The Siege of the Castle of Milan is carried on with Success; and we hear the Imperialists have made themselves Masters of the Cover'd-Way. Their Batteries of Cannon and Mortars do great Execution, having dismounted 18 or 20 Pieces of the Artillery of the Besieged, and ruin'd the Flanks of 2 Bastions. Deserters confirm that the Garrison suffers extremely, by great Fatigues and Want of Provisions and other Necessaries. Letters from Mantua assure us the French will leave that City in a few Days, and that they have actually suspended the storing of their Magazines. They add, that a General Officer is gone to Milan, to conclude a Treaty for conducting the Garrison of that Castle to Suza, and evacuating the other Places of the Milaneze: And that the greatest Difficulty is on the Part of Prince Eugene, who would have the said Garrison surrender at Discretion. Last Week 800 Recruits for the Regiment of Kriechbaum pass'd through here for the Army in Italy. 'Tis reported the Grisons have granted Passage through their Territories to the Milaneze, for the Troops the Emperour shall send thither from Germany.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated March 25.

Milan, Mar. 22. The Fire from the Castle was very vigorous to Day, from Morning till 4 in the Afternoon; but that firing is ceas'd on a Sudden: M. de St. Pater Lieutenant General is arriv'd, with Letters from the King of France to Prince Eugene, by which the Governour is order'd to march out of the Castle. M. de St. Pater is to enter it to Night, with some German Officers, to regulate the March of the Garrison out of it, which is to be the 14th. The Towns of Mantua, Cremona, Final, Sabionetta, Valenza, and Mirandola, are to be evacuated the 16th of this Month. The French are all to march out of Italy, and to be conducted to Suza.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated March 25.

Paris, March 21. The 19th Instant M. de Pontchartrain deliver'd to the King as he was coming from Mals, a Letter from M. Robert Commissioner of the Navy at Brest, advising, that M. Du Quesne had met at the Entrance of the Channel 16 English Transports convoy'd by 2 Men of War bound for Portugal: That the 2 Men of War and 2 Transports being favour'd by the Wind escap'd, one Transport was sunk, and the remaining 13 were taken and brought into Brest. They had on board board Soldiers, Money, Provisions, Cloaths, Saddles, Arms, Powder, Cannon-Balls, Cables, &c. M. du Quesne having seen these Prizes safe into Brest, pursued his Voyage. The 12 Lieutenant Generals that are to serve under the Duke of Vendome, are M. Gage, Chemerault, Birckenfeld, d'Artagnan, de Guiche, Gassion, Biron, du Rosel, Albergotti, Magnac, de la Motte, and Souffernon. The Duke of Orleans sets out for Spain the 26th Instant; and the Duke de Noailles the same Day for Roussillon, where he will find a Body of 20 Battalions and 18 Squadrons. M. de Chamillard is likewise on his Departure, to view the Frontier-Towns of Flanders, and muster the Troops. In the mean Time there is great Talk of Peace in this City and at Court.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated Mar. 25.

Liste, Mar. 22. Part of the Duke of Vendome's Field-Equipage is arriv'd here; but we have no certain Advice when that Duke himself will leave the Court. All the Troops that are to compose his Army, are to draw together by the 16th of next Month. There is a Talk that two Armies will be form'd, one of 60 or 65000 Men under the Duke of Vendome, the other of 18 or 20000 under the Elector of Bavaria; which last is to be employ'd chiefly in covering Namur and the Country of Luxemburg. The Enemy make great Preparations likewise in their Frontier Places, in order to take the Field as soon as the Duke of Marlborough arrives.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated Mar. 25.

Hague, Mar. 23. The 21st Instant the Field-Marshal M. d'Auverquerque receiv'd 2 Expresses, one from Count Tilly who in his Absence commands in Brussels, the other from the Earl of Albemarle who commands in Liege: And his Excellency, after a long Conference with the Deputies of the States upon the Dispatches brought him by those Couriers, has order'd all the Officers that were here, to return forthwith to their respective Garrisons. Letters from a good Hand, dated at Valencia in Spain the 17th of January, advise, that the Troops of the Allies in Arragon have reduc'd the Marquisate of Avifo to the Obedience of King Charles III.

RACHEL ORMSTON, late of Martin's Lane, now Lives in the New-Buildings in Lawrence-street, near the Church in Great Chelsea, where she continues to Reduce all sorts of Crookedness by the Method invented by the Famous VAN HELMONT, which is the most Certain, Safe, and the Easiest Way that has yet been Practis'd or Known, being without those Rugged and painful Racks of Neck-Swings, Iron-Bodice, or other Presses that are commonly us'd in such Cases, which are sure always to give abundance of Pain and Uneasiness, without any Certainty of Cure; wherein if they Fail, as often they do than otherwise, (because they depend altogether upon Force, without any probable Reason) commonly leave the Patient either Decriped, or Consumptive, or both, at best Unhealthy. But this Method is altogether Easy, without any Force, and Consonant to the Gentle Rules of Nature, and the Tender Bodies of Growing Children; and for that Reason has all the Assurances of Success that Moral Probability can give, as the Practice has Demonstrated, inasmuch that some have scrupled to believe them to be the same Children after the Cure is perform'd.

TO BE SOLD BY AUCTION

To Morrow the 20th of this Instant March, a large Parcel of Lustreinges, Alamodes, and Mantua Silks, Mens and Womens Gloves, with fine Ribbons of all Sorts, Muslin, Crape, Sewing and Stitching Silk, and all other sorts of Haberdashery and Millinery Goods, being the late Goods of Mrs. Deboath Gerrard deceas'd, at the corner House of Stocks-Market in the Poultry.
